

FORWARDINFAITH

PRIVACY NOTICE

New Directions* Subscribers

Forward in Faith sends its magazine New Directions to non-members of Forward in Faith who pay an annual subscription. This constitutes fulfilment of a contract.

To facilitate this, subscribers' names and addresses, as well as their telephone numbers and/or email addresses are stored in our database, which is held securely on password-protected computers. The data controller is Forward in Faith (registered charity no. 1057246).

The contact details are used to send the magazine and to contact subscribers about their subscriptions, and for no other purpose. The names and addresses are sent to our mailing contractors each month but are never communicated to third parties. Copies of standing orders are retained until the first payment has been received.

If you wish to cancel your subscription, please notify the Administrative Assistant by emailing admin.assistant@forwardinfaith.com . Your name and address only will be retained with your payment record as part of our financial records for seven years from the date of last payment; other contact details will be deleted immediately.